

SUMMER 2009

air-conditioned comfort!

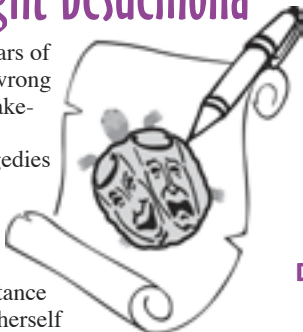

Riverwalk Theatre

Summer Shows are NOT included on the season ticket.

Good Night Desdemona

What if 400 years of scholars were wrong and two of Shakespeare's most recognized tragedies were actually comedies? That's what the timid and awkward Constance Ledbelly finds herself exploring as she careens from Verona to Spain, seemingly transforming Shakespeare's canon into broadside comedies of mistaken identities and misplaced love.

(Good Morning Juliet)

COMEDY
by Anne Marie McDonald
Directed by Jeff Croff

July 16-19 & 23-26 • Auditions 7 pm May 17-18, 2009

7 pm Thursdays; 8 pm Fridays & Saturdays; 2 pm Sundays

$14 adult, $12 senior/student • Tickets on sale 6/23/09

BARGAIN THURSDAYS: $10 adult, $8 senior/student

Thunderhoof & the Prince

A MUSICAL COMEDY
for the whole family
by Fran Johnson, music by Yvonne Whitmore, directed by Dan Pappas

This musical fantasy is fun for kids of all ages. Thunderhoof helps Prince Alex in his fairy-tale quest for a bride. Can they escape the mean queen?

Outwit the wacky werewolf? Get past the oafish ogre? Fresh, original music.

7 pm Fridays; 2 & 4:30 pm Saturdays; 2 pm Sundays
$5 kids; $7 adults age 16+
Tickets on sale 7/21/09

August 14-16 & 21-23

Auditions 7 pm June 7-8, 2009

Reservations: 482-5700 or at RiverwalkTheatre.com
228 Museum Drive, south off Michigan Ave. across from the Lansing Center